JANUARY 15, 2012 ~ SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. Olaf's Store Is One Year Old!

by Bev McCoy, Shop Keeper and
Peter Barrett, Parish/Business Administrator

After completing one full year of business, St. Olaf's store has become the "go-to" place in Minneapolis for Catholic publications, gifts and more. Word is spreading throughout the community that our store is where you can find most anything Catholic for your personal use and/or gift giving needs.

There were many doubts about how successful a "book" store could be in today's world of Kindles and other electronic devices. Yet despite them, the store has been extremely busy buying, selling and "special ordering" a large and diverse variety of Catholic literature.

But even more important is the fact that many people who stop in are being exposed to the richness of the church in publications by a variety of classic authors as well as modern writers who are retelling the story of our faith in new and compelling ways.

Thank you to all of our patient guests who experienced our "growing pains" as we developed vendor relationships and learned what merchandise they want and the store needed. The suggestions from store guests have been incorporated into store selections since we opened our doors and will continue to be. We special order many types of merchandise and media.

Throughout the year we were able to host Ten Anchors author Fr. John Forliti, Get Out Of The Boat author Deacon Thom Winninger, Breakfast with The Pope author Susan Vigilante, and Left To Tell and Led By Faith author Immaculee Ilibagiza. Author presentations add a special and intimate dimension to the books they have written and we read. Watch for more author signings and special book-related events.

Please come and enjoy the camaraderie that is developing among guests and staff at the store. It is a warm and inviting place filled with faith enriching conversations and learning, a quiet place to meditate and ponder. Being around the articles of faith is soothing. Most days you will even see Fr. Mark checking in inventory, answering guest's questions, blessing purchased items, or ringing guest purchases. The store adds yet another dimension to life at St Olaf.

Simply Stewardship . . .

In today's first reading, we hear Samuel respond eagerly, "Here I am!" each time the Lord calls him. May we, too, be listening for the call of God in our lives and be ready to say like the Psalmist, "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Is Ending Homelessness Possible? How Can the Faith Community Support Solutions?

All are welcome for this next presentation in St. Olaf's "Engaging Our Faith Series" on Tuesday, January 24 6:00 - 6:30 pm hospitality; 6:30 - 8:00 pm program featuring Cathy ten Broeke, director of Heading Home Hennepin, the City/County Office to End Homelessness

In 2006 community leaders resolved to end homelessness in the community, not just manage it. The result was: Heading Home Hennepin: The Ten-Year Plan to End Homelessness in Minneapolis and Hennepin County. "All people deserve safe, decent, and affordable housing", "Shelter is not housing" and "Ending homelessness is attainable" are some of the plan's guiding principles. And now, halfway through this 10-year ambitious initiative, Heading Home Hennepin staff will present its progress, its challenges and how the faith community can assist in ending homelessness.

Please join us for an informative discussion of this vision for a better future: Ending homelessness for all. For more information and to RSVP, contact Joan Miltenberger at 612-767-6211 or jmiltenberger@SaintOlaf.org.
